

Preparing for Korean unification with passion and creativity

The UniKorea Foundation Woocho Global Intern-Scholarship Program

Created in 2015, the UniKorea Foundation is dedicated to paving the way and preparing for the reunification of the Korean peninsula. We support various organizations working to promote inter-Korean cooperation and exchanges, and promoting peace and reconciliation between North and South Korea, and beyond.

What is the Woocho Global Intern-Scholarship?

The Woocho Global Intern-Scholarship Program operates on the Woocho Scholarship Fund which aims to cultivate talented youth's from around the globe. This program provides students with an interest in Korean reunification with invaluable research and practical experiences with a goal to train participants to acquire knowledge, develop perspective, and create new ideas on peace and reunification of the two Koreas.

Program details

- 2020.01.02 - 2020.02.28
(2 months / may be extended up to 6 months depending on performance)
- Mandatory two-day (Fri-Sat) workshop during the internship period
- Location: UniKorea Foundation Office
@ Gwanghwamun (Seoul, Junggu, Sejongdaero 21 gil 52)

Responsibilities

- Research & archiving issues and materials on North Korea and reunification
- Assist PR(SNS, writing, creating online contents, etc) activities
- Organize intern hosted team projects
- Facilitate various networking events
- Other general administrative support

Requirements

- (Under) graduate students
- High interest on issues surrounding reunification of the Korean peninsula
- Fluency in English and/or Korean (native level)
- Considerate and open-minded towards diverse cultures

* Preferred attributes

- Experience in activities relating to Korean reunification
- Competent in the use of photoshop, PowerPoint, excel etc.
- Students majoring in design or video production and editing
- Enjoys writing and is proficient in the use of social media
- Experience working with NGOs

Program Benefits

- Scholarship 3,000,000 KRW
- Free lunch at the in-house cafeteria
- Experience the functions of a private NGO specializing in reunification of Korea
- Participate in roundtable discussions and seminars with renowned guest speakers related to the field of reunification
- The opportunity to take part in various activities and projects relating to North Korea and reunification

Application Process

Applicants should send their resume and cover letter in one file (Word or PDF format) to hy.kang@tongilnanum.com by 3pm on 13 November 2019.

There is no designated format for resume and cover letter; however, the cover letter must clearly illustrate the applicant's competencies and interest in North Korean/reunification related issues.

Interviews will be conducted for short-listed candidates.
All applicants will be individually notified of the results of the document screening.

Documents submitted during the application process will not be returned.
Any applications found to contain falsified information will be eliminated.

Enquiries should be made to the Woocho Global Intern-Scholarship Program Coordinator at 02-738-7269.

Document Screening (selection of candidates for interview)

2019.11.13~19

Interview

2019.11.20~22

Final Selection

2019.11.29(Fri)

Application Period: 2019.10.28 (Mon) – 11.13 (Wed) 15:00