

Arthur D. Little

Consulting Research Analyst Intern

About Us

As the world's first consultancy firm, Arthur D. Little (ADL) has been at the forefront of innovation for more than 130 years. We are acknowledged as thought leaders in linking strategy, technology and innovation. Our consultants consistently develop enduring next generation solutions to master our clients' business complexity and to deliver sustainable results suited to the economic reality of each of our clients.

What a career with ADL can offer you?

As a Research Analyst Intern, you will play an active role in defining, collecting and analyzing data and information across high-tech industries and functional domains. Your responsibility will be gathering and analyzing data from primary and secondary research, perform qualitative and quantitative research, verifying and organizing data to develop insights in the Asian markets including Korea.

Requirements

- Current students (Business, Economics, Finance, Engineering) from a top tier university with outstanding record of academic achievement
- Demonstrated analytical and problem-solving skills
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively in a team environment as well as independently
- Excellent speaking, reading and writing skills in English and Korean. Other Asian languages are advantageous.
- Available to work from ADL's office in Korea or remotely, on Full- or Part- time basis

How to Apply?

Interested candidates can apply with your CV and cover letter to koh.joel@adlittle.com with the following email subject title: "2020 Research Analyst Intern [First Name] [Last Name]"

Candidate should be available for the period from Jan to Mar 2020, dates and working arrangements can be discussed.

Arthur D. Little is an equal-opportunity employer. This means we are committed, as a firm, to ensuring that no employee, contractor, vendor, or job applicant is discriminated against because of their race, color, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex, marital or civil partner status, sexual orientation, age, gender reassignment or disability.